OF DEATH in plain terms, so that it may be properly classified. Fill all blanks with certainty. Make a separate certificate for each death. Do not use abbreviations or terms of occupation. Be sure to answer every question. Write plainly with pen and ink. Use only black ink. Do not fail to sign certificate. Please read carefully the instructions on back of certificate. Every certificate must be complete and correct in every detail. Omissions cause unnecessary correspondence and delay. Physicians are requested to report cases of death at the earliest possible moment. Information is especially desired as to the exact cause of death in order that the certificate may be of the greatest value
